

Image 3 - Tools used during Female Genital Mutilation in Nigeria

The photo shows the materials used during Female Genital Mutilation (FGM) in Nigeria. The snail shell is used for storing the blade used for cutting the genital organs of young girls and babies. The leaves are healing herbs which are made into paste and are placed on the fresh wounds to facilitate healing.

Ngozika Jane Hemuka, Faculty of Education Health and Wellbeing